The Meeting of Congress.

Congress meets to-day, Dec. 6th, at noon The session will be short closing on the 4th of March. The Senate is Democratic, two to one. In the House, three of the most conspicuous members of the last session will not answer to the roll call. Gen. Quitman of Mississippi, and Minister to Austria, has resigned. Gov. Me-Rac has been chosen to succeed Gen. Quitman, and Gen. Keim to succeed Mr. Jones. No suc- claring it "inexpedient to re-open the Slave pronounced, in our courts of Justice! By arrangement, the Message of the President is to be delivered to-day. It fills no less than eighteen of the broad columns of the Washington Union according to the telegraph head to spin out such an interminable exposition and defence.

Washington Items and Rumors

The President's Message was started by special messenger for St. Louis on the 3d, to be forwarded by overland mail to California.

It is stated that the Messago recommends the radification of the Cass-Herran treaty as now modified, and is against a protectorate for Mexico. It is said to be the purpose of the President to concentrate as large a naval force as possible upon the Gulf of Mexico, and the Coast of speech in the Convention. The nomination is
